

5.3.2 Institution facilitates students' participation and engagement in various administrative in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.

The purpose of the students' council is very essential in students' active engagement and participation in various co-curricular and extracurricular activities. The student council provides an opportunity to foster numerous skills among the students like communication, leadership, teamwork, management, public speaking and problem-solving.

The departments of the Institute organize several activities to promote and encourage the active involvement of students in organizing and implementing co-curricular and extracurricular activities. The NSS and NCC units of the institute play a major role in the involvement of students in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. These two units bridge the gap between the institute and society. Under NSS and NCC the activities like campaigning on various social issues like cleanliness, tree plantation, voting awareness, pulse polio, Covid-19 vaccination, Constitution Day, plastic awareness campaign, and water pollution. The institute support and motivate students in their active participation to conduct various co-curricular activities like guest lectures, training programs elocution and essay competitions, and celebration of the traditional day. The institute's library arranges a 'Book Fair' with the help of students. University-level zonal and inter-zonal competitions like Volleyball are successfully organized. The Anti-ragging, sexual harassment and student redressal committee always consider students especially girls' opinion to avoid any untoward incident regarding this.
